Skills work

Reading

1 Read the texts and correct the statements.

In London, there are different means of transport.

The red buses are an important public means of transport. A lot of people use them to go to work or travel around the capital. The double deckers (see photo) are very popular and people who visit the city use them to go on tours and see many interesting places. They are also cheap.

Another means of public transport is the underground. It isn't very expensive. It is very fast and people who use it are never late for work. The black taxis are also very popular, they are comfortable and spacious, but they are expensive and slow.

Dear Fred,
How are you?

Today is a special day in Morocco and in all the Islamic world. It is the new Moslem year, called the New Hegire year (Fatih Moharram). In the Moslem calendar, it's the year 1424. It's a day off. People go to the mosque and do their prayers. They wear traditional clothes (men wear djellabas and women wear caftans). They exchange visits to families, relatives and friends. They drink tea, eat cakes and other local food. I'm now sitting round a big table with Lamia and her family. There is a lot of food on the table Meloui, Harsha, Rghifa, Sellou... It's very delicious. I'm enjoying my stay here.

Yesterday, I was at Adil's birthday party. Adil is Lamia's cousin. He is travelling to London next August and he is going to visit us there.

Bye for now.
Take care,

Monday, March 31st

Dear Mum,

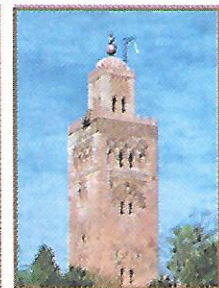

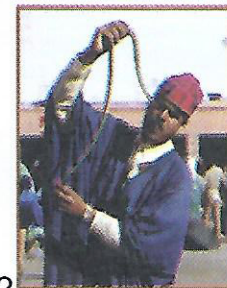

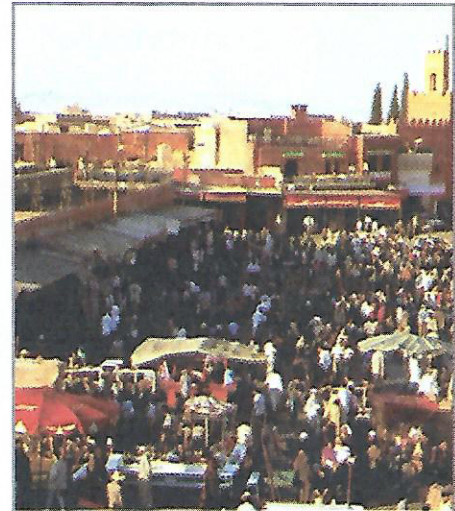

How are you all?

I'm writing from Marrakesh. I arrived here on Saturday. It's a wonderful city, seductive and full of life. There are many tourists from different continents, Europe, Asia, America, Australia and Africa. People speak English every where ; in hotels, in the shops, in restaurants and in the streets. The Marrakshis are nice, helpful, sociable and hospitable. This morning, I asked a young girl the way to the post office; we talked together for a while and she invited me home. I'm going to have dinner with her. yesterday I toured the city in a nice, comfortable green coach drawn by three horses.

I visited la Koutoubia, Bahia palace, El Manara, Al Mansour Mosque, etc. Last night, I was in Jamaâ El Fna. Everybody who visits Marrakesh visits this fabulous place. It is famous for its snake charmers, acrobats, Gnawa, story tellers, local and regional folklore, etc.

There are so many things to see; so I am staying for another week. I'm flying back on Saturday April 12th.
