About this Series

This graded reader is part of Story Quest, a series that supports Moroccan students in building their English language skills. Its stories encourage curiosity, build confidence, and foster a lifelong love of reading.

The Story Quest series was developed through collaboration between the Ministry of National Education, Preschool and Sports, Curriculum Directorate, and Amideast. Together, we help students strengthen their English while opening doors to new ideas, cultures, and opportunities.

Supported by the U.S. Embassy in Morocco.

Tiziri's Magic

Tiziri finds a blue pencil.
It is in a small box.

She also finds four pieces of paper.

Tiziri loves to draw.
She draws a blue butterfly.

The next day, a blue butterfly is at her window.

Tiziri looks again. The butterfly is still there.

She draws a cat.

The next day, a cat is at her door.

"Is this magic?" she asks.
Tiziri looks at the blue pencil.
She has an idea.
“I will draw something impossible!”
She draws a dragon.

The next day, a dragon flies high in the sky.
Now Tiziri knows. The blue pencil is magic!

Tiziri has only one more page. She thinks. She has a new idea.
She draws her family at a picnic.

The next day, her father smiles.

"Who wants a picnic today?" he asks.

She smiles.

It is the best picture of all.
